SIBERIAN CABINET WOULD HARM ALLIES

Allies Protest to General Horvath, the Anti-Bolshevik Military Commander, That Proclamation Is Unwise.

Peking, Saturday, July 13.—(By Associated Press.)—The British, French and Japanese ministers to China have strongly protested to General Horvath, the anti-Bolshevik military commander, who has formed a temporary war cabinet for Siberia, asking him to withdraw his dictatorship proclamation on the ground that it is unwise and untimely.

The proclamation, the ministers say, may impede the movement of the Czechoslovaks, which movement at the present time is all important. General Horvath is requested to reply to the diplomatic protest.

Miss Florence Finnigan of Websterville has gone to Burlington, where she will visit friends.

Mrs. Lydia B. Wiley of Orleans is visiting in the home of Jerry Hutchinson of Charles street.

Mrs. Martha Gallagher of Laurel street has gone to Quincy, Mass., to pass a few weeks with relatives.

Earle Williams in "The Soul Master," a Vitaphone feature, and a comedy, Bijou to-morrow—adv.

Mrs. Robert Piper has arrived from Toronto, Canada, to spend a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rennie of Fairview street.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Lane of Newton Highlands, Mass., were visitors at the home of Miss Ida Haviland of Spaulding street yesterday.

Corey Granal, a sailor in the U. S. merchant marine, arrived in the city yesterday to pass a furlough with his brother on North Main street.

Mrs. Orrin Hughes of Washington street commenced a vacation of two weeks from her duties as a clerk at the Daylight store this forenoon.

Regular monthly meeting of the Presbyterian ladies' union will be held Tuesday evening, July 16, at the home of Mrs. Alex. Stewart of Park street.

Miss Wiley of Essex street is spending her vacation with her sister, Maude, in Melrose, Mass., and William and Doris Wiley are with their uncle in Glover.

Miss Madeline Grady of Merchant street left the city this forenoon for Lebanon, N. H., where she will make a visit of several weeks with friends and relatives.

The Barre Woman's club will hold a special meeting in Howland hall Tuesday, July 16, at 2:30 p. m. Reports of the state federation and important business to come before the meeting.

Miss Bertina Hooker, who is spending the summer months at the Hooker summer camp at Greensboro, spent the week end at her home on Park street, returning to Greensboro this forenoon.

Miss Margaret Kittredge and Joseph Kittredge of Worcester, Mass., and Pvt. Daynor McIntyre of Camp Devens, who had been visiting Misses Annie and Grace Barclay for about a week, left this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Bassett and little daughter of Orleans and Lyndol Waterman of Rock Island, P. Q., were visitors yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Waterman of Washington street.

The savings banks and trust companies of Barre would appreciate it very much if you would check and send your deposit books for verification at an early date. The law requires this to be done once in five years.

George Murray, a son of Mrs. Murray of Merchant street, has passed successfully the naval examinations qualifying him as a first class fireman and is now serving aboard one of Uncle Sam's mine sweepers.

The Barre Woman's auxiliary to the food administration will hold a meeting in the Aldrich library hall this evening at 7:30 o'clock, and it is hoped there will be a large attendance as interesting reports will be made.

Private Guy Ottoloni arrived in the city this forenoon from Ft. Beauregard, La., where he is attached to the medical corps, to spend a furlough of several days at his home on Blackwell street.

For a long period, when the respondent will be sentenced by Judge H. W. Scott. State's Atty. Earle R. Davis appeared for the state, and Mrs. Benvenuti was represented by A. G. Fay.

From county jail to the hayfield was the step taken by James Suple to-day, with a suspended sentence of three months figuring in the equation. Suple was brought up from the county jail to face a charge of furnishing liquor illegally. He pleaded guilty and on the recommendation of the state's attorney he was sentenced by the magistrate to serve three months in the county jail, the sentence to be suspended during good behavior, with the understanding that Suple pass the next few weeks as a haymaker. A man was on hand to give him employment. Suple was arrested last week, but the prosecutor's investigation is said to have disclosed the fact that the respondent had not been engaged in the business of furnishing liquor for purposes of profit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Papin, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Papin and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Papin of Burlington were guests yesterday and to-day of John Papin of Allen street. Upon their return home they were accompanied by Misses Beatrice and Lillian Papin, who are passing two weeks with relatives in Burlington and Plattsburg, N. Y.

Orreste Boffino of Maple avenue is taking a vacation of two weeks from his duties in the Union Clothing store, and with Mrs. Boffino left yesterday for Highgate Springs to occupy their camp. They were accompanied by A. H. Fasola of Berlin street, who is taking a vacation from his duties in the office of the Excelsior Granite Co. of Montpelier.

LeRoy Kenneth, a former Barre boy, who has been vacationing at his farm in Danville since completing another season with the Klark Urban Stock Co., is revisiting acquaintances here for a few days. Later he leaves on a business trip to Boston and New York, after which he will rejoin the stock company at Bucksport, Me. Mr. Kenneth continues to contribute short stories and special articles to current literature. In a recent supplement of the Scientific American he is represented by an excellent illustrated article on Barre granite, in which the quarrying of the stone on Millstone hill is conspicuously featured.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Brown of Jefferson street returned yesterday from Plattsburg, N. Y., where they have been passing a few days with their son, Winston Brown, who is enrolled for the summer in the junior Plattsburg training camp. The young man, a Spaulding high school student, is a member of the camp band and is thoroughly pleased with his new environment. There are 700 boys, ranging from 15 to 21, in the junior camp and the staff personnel includes three British army officers, invalided to America because of injuries received in action. Young Mr. Brown is the only Vermont boy in the camp, which is located some eight miles north of the U. S. army reservation.

Guests arriving at Hotel Barre through the week and included the following people: Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McDonnell, Misses McDonnell and Miss Lovett of Buffalo, N. Y., G. S. Tracy and party of Hartford, Conn., Mr. and Mrs. Burton Preston of Mansfield, O., Mr. and Mrs. B. McDonald, Gordon McDonald of Beecher Falls, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hovey of Canaan, J. F. Adams, F. J. Trefan, Misses Trefan of Lyndon, Mrs. S. B. Partridge of New York City, E. E. Smith, Miss Marion Brown of White River Junction and Miss Maude Weston of Rutland, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Hunt of Lowell, Mass., Mrs. Eva Jones of Windsor, D. G. Donahue of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Howard of Derry, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Cummings and child of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Stated convocation of Granite chapter, No. 26, R. A. M., Tuesday, July 16, at 7:30 p. m. Per order E. H. P.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. Joe Taylor of New York City is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Siora of Green street.

Robert Beagrie, who recently went to Lowell, Mass., to be employed, is passing a few days at his home in Keith avenue.

Margery Wilson in "Wild Sumac," a Triangle feature, and a two-reel Keystone comedy, "The Tell-Tale Shirt," Bijou to-day—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bippus and son, who have been spending the past few weeks at the home of Mrs. Anne W. Robertson of Washington street, returned Saturday evening to their home in Hartford, Conn.

W. H. Harrison of New York, president of the Harrison Granite company, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison, who are making an extended stay at Hotel Barre, were entertained through the week end by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith at Woodbury pond.

Four-minute speeches are to be delivered at both the Park and the Bijou theatres this evening. Daniel J. Sullivan is to speak on the subject, "The Meaning of America." It is hoped that large audiences will be present in both amusement houses, as Mr. Sullivan's remarks are well worth hearing.

Employees of the Johnson & Gustafson stoneshed held their annual picnic at Dewey park Saturday, and with their families numbered about 125. Games and dancing occupied considerable of the time, the picnic lasting all day. There was everything to eat and drink that could be desired and everyone present seemed thoroughly to enjoy the day in the open.

The funeral of James K. Donahue, one of the oldest residents of Barre Town, whose death at his home in Websterville Friday evening followed a shock, was held in St. Sylvester's church in Graniteville this morning at 9 o'clock. Mr. Donahue was 90 years old. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Fr. Joseph Turcot, the parish priest, and those who acted as bearers were: Daniel Burns, T. J. Bagley, John O'Connor, Thomas Lamoy. There was a large gathering of relatives and friends, among the former being Private Leon Donahue of a military camp in Baltimore, Md., a son of the deceased, who came home for a furlough of ten days. Interment was in St. Sylvester's cemetery at South Barre.

Arthur Veino, captain of a gun crew aboard the U. S. S. Lake Forest, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Mildred Veino of Trow hill, emerged safely from the ship's encounter with a German submarine, according to tidings received from the young man immediately upon his arrival in an Atlantic port a few days ago. Newspaper dispatches of July 11 state that a German submarine which attacked the Lake Forest while the latter was returning from a voyage to Europe is believed to have been sunk by the steamer's guns after a two-hour running fight, according to information received in marine circles.

The dispatch also stated that Capt. H. R. O. Johnson, U. S. N. reserve, in command of the ship, had been commended to the navy department for having sunk the U-boat, by officers associated with him in the naval reserve. Seaman Veino enlisted in the navy at the outbreak of the war.

PLEA OF GUILTY ENTERED

By Mrs. Joseph Benvenuti to Charge of Illegal Selling.

A plea of guilty to a charge of keeping liquor illegally was entered in municipal court this forenoon by Mrs. Joseph Benvenuti, who, with her husband, was arrested in connection with a raid and seizure of liquor on North Main street last week. Other cases in which the woman and Mr. Benvenuti figured as the result of the raid, have been continued until Thursday, when the respondent will be sentenced by Judge H. W. Scott. State's Atty. Earle R. Davis appeared for the state, and Mrs. Benvenuti was represented by A. G. Fay.

From county jail to the hayfield was the step taken by James Suple to-day, with a suspended sentence of three months figuring in the equation. Suple was brought up from the county jail to face a charge of furnishing liquor illegally. He pleaded guilty and on the recommendation of the state's attorney he was sentenced by the magistrate to serve three months in the county jail, the sentence to be suspended during good behavior, with the understanding that Suple pass the next few weeks as a haymaker. A man was on hand to give him employment. Suple was arrested last week, but the prosecutor's investigation is said to have disclosed the fact that the respondent had not been engaged in the business of furnishing liquor for purposes of profit.

ADMITTED TO ANNAPOLIS.

Victor Ossola of Barre Passed the Examinations.

A telegram received in the city yesterday by City Attorney William Wishart announced that Victor Ossola had passed successfully the physical examination which qualified him for admission to the U. S. naval academy at Annapolis, Md. He expects to enter the academy to-day. Mr. Ossola is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ossola of 12 Cottage street. He graduated from Spaulding high school in 1917 and entered Norwich university last fall. Early this spring he was recommended by Senator W. P. Dillingham for Annapolis and received from the senator an appointment. Some weeks ago he passed the mental examination "with flying colors," as announced in a letter from the senator.

Mr. Ossola is the first Barre boy to qualify for the naval academy in many years. Trueman Searsey entered the academy some years ago. With Mr. Ossola, a young man named Tuttle of Montpelier expected to enroll.

WEBSTERVILLE

The Baptist Sunday school held its annual outing last Friday at James Geake's grove on Cobble hill. Over 80 persons attended, being transferred by John McFarland's truck, and all enjoyed the day, despite the fact that a shower shortly after-lunchtime made everyone seek shelter. Mrs. James Geake kindly opened her house to all. After the rain, the lawn soon dried sufficiently to permit racing, in which everyone took part. Ice cream added greatly to the afternoon's pleasure. About 5 o'clock the young people went back to the grove, where they enjoyed swinging, racing and athletic feats until 8 o'clock, when they returned home, tired, but happy.
